Jens Reulecke

Workshop: 14. Oct. – 27. Nov. 2008

Vernissage: 28. November 2008

Ausstellung: 28. Nov. – 8. Dec. 2008

14th October 2008 – 27th November 2008

Jens Reulecke works with what he finds (human beings, places, stories), like a hobbyist who doesn't follow any purpose and doesn't use any special materials and tools. In his performance installation "appear" it's about creating relationships between individuals and spaces.

The workshop offers a space for action where everything can be developed from – perhaps a shift of fixed frameworks and patterns by stepping over them in the sense of shifting mountains.
